Historic Werribee Mansion Tours

Experience first hand one of the finest examples of Italianate architecture in the world. Constructed between 1874-77, the historic mansion marked the peak of affluence for squatters Thomas and Andrew Chirnside; a prominent pastoral family of colonial Victoria. From 1922 the Mansion became the property of the Catholic Church and was home to one of Australia's first seminaries up to 1973. The Saint Joseph's wing of Corpus Christi College is now the luxurious Lancemore Mansion Hotel Werribee Park.

Book now and experience a taste of Melbourne's rich history brought to life before your eyes.

The Dress – Exclusive Night Show at the Mansion

Step back in time to 1895 and join the widowed Mrs. Hannah Bryden and her flamboyant dressmaker Mr. Bertin for an evening of high fashion and intrigue.

- Witness Hannah's transformation from a recluse to one of Melbourne's leading socialites as she dons Bertin's most daring creation yet.
- Enjoy a glass of champagne or soft drink as you mingle with the actors, including Hannah in "the dress".
- Be serenaded by live cello music from Patrick Schnur as you soak up the atmosphere of this immersive historical experience.
- Duration of the event is 1 hour and 30 minutes.

What Was That? – Exclusive Night Show At The Mansion

- This immersive play is based on the true story of the Chirnsides family and is filled with comedy and scary elements.
- It is a roaming play, so the audience is welcomed as 'old friends of the Chirnsides'. You will follow the actors throughout the magnificent house with the story unfolding as you move from room to room.
- Running time is 90 minutes and includes a glass of wine or soft drink at the end of the performance.

Flat Out F1

Flat Out F1 involves teams constructing life-sized Formula One cars using a wooden chassis and other materials and blueprints provided to them. Once the cars are completed, teams compete in a championship race to crown an overall winner. It's excellent for project management, teamwork, with a fun competitive element.

Price on application.

Crescendo

Crescendo is a unique program that will take delegates out of their comfort zone as they learn how to play a piece of music on the violin in 90 minutes. A string orchestra is a great analogy for a high performing team in the workplace. Everyone must focus on the collective result and work together to make sure the desired outcome is achieved.

Price on application.

TEAM ACTIVITIES DURING DINNER

Can you imagine what it would be like to solve a murder mystery? Are all things all they appear? Join in on the fun; all of your guests will take part in this game.

There is usually only one murderer (or is there?); the rest are all mere suspects... Can you guess who the murderer may be?

Our murder mystery suppliers have a range of options for you to select from... you could be transported to the 1857 Eureka Stockade, find yourself in the 1920's era or running around the Wild Wild West.

To fully immerse yourself in the experience, your supplier may include costumes for your guests, or for an additional cost, they will be supplied including props.

Your dedicated conference and events coordinator will assist you with selecting the right murder mystery company for you. The company will then work with you and your coordinator to ensure your evening runs smoothly and you walk away having an amazing night!

Prices and duration of the activity vary depending on the murder mystery company.

Venue hire fees may apply

Pricing does not include dinner or beverages consumed during the night.
